SUNDAY:-----AUGUST 17, 1856.

MALLY! MALLY! MALLY!

The talented, gifted and eloquent young Democrat, John Y. Brown, of Hardin county, John Y. Brown, will speak at Democratic Head-quarters, on Fifth street, to-morrow night. Mr. Brown is scarcely twenty-one years old. He is the boy who made such a gallant race for Clerk in Hardin county at the last election. He is to be one of the Nation's wonders. Let no man mis-hearing him.

Democratic Club.

The eloquent and gallant young Democrat, John Y. Brown, of Hardin county, will address the Democratic Club on Monday night. He and his friends, if you wish to hear one of the most talented and eloquent young men in the State. Mr. Brown is the gentleman who reduced the Know Nothing majority in Hardin county 200 at the recent election.

Thanks to Adams & Co.'s Express for papers.

REBELLION NOTICE.—The Rev. Dr. Page will preach this morning and evening at Christ Church. Service to commence at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

Persons wishing a pleasant trip to Missouri on the upper Mississippi, have chance now. The excellent steamer Thomas Scott, starts to-morrow, at 4 o'clock. Go aboard.

THE Cincinnati Times claims the triumph is now, as being a Known-Nothing one instead of Free Soil. It is but little. Both parties are Anti-Abolitionists.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Tunnall Q. Carter has received the appointment of Post Master at Adam's Mills, Pulaski co., Ky., vice P. H. Sanders, re-signed.

Senator Evans, formerly Whig United States Senator from Maine, has declared himself in favor of Buchanan and Breckinridge.

As to the brewing business in this country, some estimate can be formed from the fact that it consumed in 1850 within a tribe of four millions of bushels of barley, and 1,200 tons of hops. We produce our own barley and hops, besides a large quantity for export—both of the best quality. Of the total barley consumed, New York furnished over two millions of bushels, and Pennsylvania a little over half a million. The malt liquor product in 1850 was 1,179,493 barrels. The total capital invested in brewing and distilling was nearly six millions, and of establishments 1,217, employing 6,140 persons.

A CASE OF MURDER.—The Detroit Free Press states that Mr. Jewett, of Chelsea, Michigan, died a few days since, in consequence of intense mental excitement, produced by reading in the newspapers the details of cruelties inflicted upon, and the death of, his brother, at the hands of "Border Ruffians" in Missouri. The postmaster at Chelsea attended the funeral, and took with him a letter just received at his office for the deceased, and postmarked in Kansas. He was not able to present it until at the grave, when on opening it, it was ascertained to be from the supposed murdered man, stating that he and his wife were well, were comfortably and happily located, and had not been hung, arrested, or in any way molested.

WE are glad to learn that Dr. Urban's Inebriates Hope is so fast gaining popularity. Though it is but a few months since it was just introduced in this city, orders are now daily arriving from all parts of the Union, and thousands who have been heretofore victims of relentless intemperance are now sober, industrious exemplary citizens. Too much cannot be said in praise of this invaluable preparation, and we sincerely recommend it to inebriates, and the friends of temperance every where.

WE understand that it is in contemplation by the friends of Nick Johnson, to tender to him a benefit this week, at which an excellent bill of recitations, songs, &c., will be offered to the public. Mr. Johnson will be assisted by several of his theatrical friends, and will make the entertainment highly interesting. Next Wednesday night, we believe, is the time fixed upon, and Mozart Hall the place. Mr. Johnson is a most deserving actor and gentleman, and we doubt not one citizen will give him a benefit worthy of the occasion.

COL. SAMUEL CHURCHILL.—The Know Nothing of this section have been circulating a report that this veteran Democrat had voted the Know Nothing ticket at the recent election, and intended to support Mr. Fillmore in November. In this community the fixedness of Col. Churchill's principles are too well known to require a denial of this absurd rumor. But as it has also been reported in other parts of the State for the purpose of assisting Mr. Fillmore, it is proper to give the rumor a public and authoritative denial.

LITHOGRAPH OF JAMES BUCHANAN.—Messrs. Evans & Merton have received some excellent Lithograph likenesses of James Buchanan. Those who have seen the distinguished Pennsylvania since his return from England pronounce them most accurate representations of the "next President." Every Democratic house in the land ought to be graced with one of the lithographs. Messrs. Evans & Merton are prepared to receive orders for them at exceedingly moderate prices.

HONESTY is the best policy especially when people are watching you, and we bear of some individuals who will find it so, for we do not believe the Kentuckians are fond of humpin' soap, humpin' side dishes, and humpin' announcements of humpin' arrangements generally. We believe they understand the proper management of any kind of business enough to know that any man or men who take pride in, and expect to make this business profitable, will avail themselves of everything which will add either fame or fortune. Therefore, in bringing our new style of Pictures before the public, we feel that our reputation is at stake, but we know of no other (Gass Picture in which we have so much confidence, nor is there any other style of Pictures one half so beautiful. We have reference to the Sphere-photograph taken at Webster's Gallery.

N. B.—W. & B. have secured the exclusive right to make and sell this style of pictures in Louisville.

How truly said, we live in an age of improvement. Troxel who keeps up with all the improvements, has got to making pictures on paper instead of glass; not photographs, but superior pictures to anything of the kind. Pictures made at Troxel's Gallery give all the color value to desirability and complexion, of a colored picture in oil. Persons wishing to get pictures of John C. Breckinridge, can be supplied by calling at the rooms. Agents furnished on terms to do well.

Five Seven Beer.—Mr. Robert Usher has a few rounds of his premium Spiced Beer, which he will deliver to any one who may want such for parties or picnics, ready cooked, on getting two days' notice. He has also a new article in his cellar Usher's Gold, Pressed Beer, and particularly recommends it to families this hot

Letter from Gen. Wm. O. Butler.

Garrison, (Ky.) July 22, 1856.

GENERAL: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, inviting me to address a Democratic meeting, to be held at Jefferson-town, Kentucky, on the 26th inst., and regret extremely that the condition of my health at present is not only such as to prevent me from complying with your request, but to unfit me for writing you a letter as the occasion would warrant. Your request, however, that I should, at all times, be able to render an active part in the Presidential campaign is extremely doubtful.

As none the less, however, on that account, equally impressed with the controlling influence it is to exercise over the country for weal or for woe, as it may result. There is now, practically, but one great issue before the country. The role of the Jewish High Priest, has swallowed up all others.

On that question, and in the very face of the constitution, the black republicans have taken their stand, and thrown down their gage of battle to all gain-sayers.

It is upon us to meet and not to overcome.

As we are, we must, and we have to contend for that which only lead to new and greater struggles. What we require, and what we may achieve, if the South is true to herself, is such a victory as will leave behind it a memory and a warning, not to be inconsideration.

There are, fortunately, but two sides of the question, and the one that is not for us is against us. The Democratic party can, and will array under its banner more voters, both North and South, against that common enemy, than all others combined, twice-fold.

That party has, therefore, properly assumed the right to its leadership, and in conjunction with a portion of the old-line Whigs, has presented the House bill, fixing the compensation of members of Congress. Several Senators declared the subject to be too expensive to put two or three thousand dollars into the treasury past year.

While others alleged turn to pay reasonable expense of gentlemen.

The subject was finally adjourned—year 27, May 2, 1856.

The Senate took up and passed the joint resolution from the House, extending for two months, the time allowed the creditors of Texas, during which they may present their claims at the Treasury.

The House bill for the settlement of the claims of officers of the revolution and the widows and orphans of those who died in the service, was passed, and will be sent to the Senate.

On motion, it was resolved that the Senate adjourn to-day, it will be Monday morning.

The House bill, House bills, and those to which there may be a disagreement between the two branches.

The Post Office appropriation bill was considered. The Palatine river bill which had been returned by the President, was taken up, and negatived.

The Senate passed the House bill making an appropriation for the light house establishment, and also the bill for running the Southern boundary of Kansas. The Senate then took a re-cess.

THE bill making the usual appropriations for mail service, and an amendment, to the bill for the compensation of the transportation of the mails between New York and Liverpool in the Collins line of steamers, was concurred in by 119 majority.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Davis, of Mass., to prohibit the sale of slaves to any country.

It is to be noted that the bill is for the protection of slaves, and not to interfere with the right of property.

The House considered and passed 32 private bills from the Senate, and also the Senate bill graving a copy right to dramatic authors. The Senate then took a recess till 7 o'clock.

THE steamship Texas has gone in search of shelter.

The storm extended as far up the river as heard.

At the government hospital, Baton Rouge, 14 inches water fell between Sunday evening and Tuesday evening.

The survivors of the Last Island reached this side of the river. They estimate the loss of life already to be 282. Many of the survivors are wounded and bruised and have broken limbs. The dead bodies were plundered by pirates who inhabit the island.

The steamer Perseverance has arrived.

The Nantilus and Perseverance are several days over due from Texas.
